1 THE ART OF BEING

The Villa Being (Arnos Vale, Tobago; +868/625-4443, fax +868/625-4420; www.being-tobago.com, futures@tstt.net.tt; $1,350-1,950), a luscious three-bedroom getaway perched above Tobago's most incredible seaview, is a hilltop fantasia of mustard and white buildings topped with jaunty spires. Each room is in its own building, making for a series of intimate spaces. Relax by the infinity-edge pool, perched above that amazing vista of deep blue Caribbean and a series of verdant bluffs. Prepare to be spoiled: the staff seems to have a magical radar that lets them know when you want something. Want to explore some of this lush and lovely island? The price includes a few days of a free car rental. Or a Being staffer will shuttle you around the island — though it's not unheard of for guests never to budge from this haven of gay-friendliness and congeniality.
